Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is for smart people or people who like to smile and have a special sense of humor, as it extends the usual boundaries of understanding our world. Written by Ervare, which is a coded name so you don't know the identity of the author for a reason. In Afrikaans, Ervare means the old man knowing, and Ervare knows. The book opens doors into the ways of meeting people and cooperating with others - worldwide. We are living in a time when virtual and real worlds begin to meet. The future of interaction, of gaming, of creativity comes like a singularity to us. This is one spoke of The Great Wheel hinted at by the subtitle. Ervare shares how to create an avatar and make a new life experience, as an artist, a creator of things in worlds where we can socialize, dream, and act. But, this book is not Science Fiction, it is written by someone who at the age of 19 became a university teacher in computer arts. He shares with us the true story of his life written as a memoir. This book is a joy to read. You shall laugh and feel immersed in the story that the author creates, weaving past, present, and future together. When telling us of the future, Ervare uses the trick that the book is actually written in the year 2037. Thus, in doing so, he brings pieces of reality to us where he is sure they will happen. The author is active as an art curator for a world famous Biennale. He is also a developer of systems for Artificial Intelligence and more. Art meets technology, opens new doors in...
