Excerpt from Pastoral Letter Addressed to the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of St. John: Therefore, it may be truly said that we are living in the age of the Holy Ghost; for the action of this Divine Spirit is the distinguishing mark of the Christian era. To this era the time after Christ which is the last age of the world, the whole burden of the psalms and prophecies of the Old Testament is directed in types and figures. By the divine action of the Holy Ghost in the Church and through the Sacraments, the prophecies that foreshadowed such splendid things to come, are fulfilled the figures that were so vague to men of the olden Dispensation, are realized. Nor, will it profit men ever to look for any fuller revelation of God. His last word has been spoken in committing to the Church His Spirit as the Guardian and Dispenser of the deposit of Christian faith. The Descent of the Holy Ghost is God's last effort for the sanctification of the world: it is Christ's very best for the human...
