Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Baily s Magazine of Sports and Pastimes, Vol. 9 It rarely happens to the conductors of a Magazine devoted to the Sports of the Field, to find in one family two members fitted for illustration in its pages. Yet such happens to be the case with the house of Paget, as the position which the Earl of Uxbridge enjoys on the Turf, renders him worthy of a place in the same collection of the Members of the Jockey Club as the Marquis of Anglesey, and many other of his relatives. Henry William George, Earl of Uxbridge, eldest son of the present, and grandson of the late Marquis of Anglesey, was born on the 9th of December, 1821. As might be anticipated from one nurtured to arms, he adopted the Army as his profession, and served for some years in the Grenadier Guards. He retired from this Corps in 1845, and from 1852 to 1855 he filled the post of Lieut.-Col. of the Staffordshire Militia. In 1834, under the auspices of the Beaudesert interest, he was returned for South Staffordshire, and sat in...
