I have found it impossible to put my own conceptions into words. How then can I hope to give adequate expression to yours? For what is the event we thus commemorate? The angel of Death, ever hovering over these regions of mortality, to execute his dread commission from the Almighty Throne, has struck down the most aged, the most venerable, and the most illustrious of our public servants, John Quincy Adams. Dust thou art, and unto dust shall thou return. This inexorable fiat, pronounced upon all the human race, has taken him from among the living. So far as such a man can die, he died on the morning of the 23d of February last. To him, in his last sublime and solemn words, that was the end of earth, and he was content! His work was done, his audit closed, and the balance struck for time and for eternity. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord; for they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them! Yes, that weather-beaten, toil-worn frame now rests from its labors, in the last long repose; while the ever living soul, fraught with riches of wisdom seldom acquired on earth, has winged its flight to the Father of Spirits. But why are we therefore met here together? What is this mans...
