

Die Philosophie Der Religion: Eine Skizze (Paperback)

By Professor Jean Grondin

Mohr Siebeck, Germany, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: German,English . Brand New Book. English summary: What would philosophy be without religion? It certainly emerged out of religion since the idea of a cosmos governed by reason was a religious tenet before it became the silent thread of the philosophical quest for truth. It implied the evidence of a purpose of life which philosophy also took up as it tried to offer a form of wisdom. The best philosophers were acutely aware that the wisdom of religion preceded philosophy. This is why their endeavors always relied on a thought-out philosophy of religion which has been forgotten today and whose main strands are recapitulated by Jean Grondin. It remains true to this day: religion offers the strongest, the most believed and discussed answers to the question of the meaning and purpose of human life, and it does so with infinitely more effect than any philosophy. This book calls attention to this philosophy of religion, i.e. the philosophy and meaningful experience of Being that religion offers to thinking. German description: Was ware die Philosophie ohne die Religion? Sie ist sicherlich aus ihr entstanden, denn die Idee eines von wohlwollenden Mächten oder mit Vernunft...
