Paperback. Condition: New. 147 pages. Many Christians need a paradigm shift in their perspective of Christianity. Our God is pictured as an angry, abusive Master, ready to punish at every mistake or shortcoming. Too many view themselves as moving constantly in and out of salvation and as a result tend to serve more out of fear rather than joy. This series of lessons will help bible students form an improved outlook of Gods forgiveness, mercy, and grace. The author firmly believes that when we begin to grasp Gods great desire to forgive and patiently lead us through spiritual transformation, we will feel a stronger assurance of our salvation. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
