Ahmed El Nadi. Paperback. Condition: New. 134 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. The book is, in part, an autobiography. The bigger parts are more or less my personal reflections about life. Im a unique person. Certain events took place in my life to make sure I remain this way. These events include: - Im an IGCSE student at 13 years of age, mechanical engineering student at the AUC at 16. - National champion at 6, world champion at 16 at a racket sport; Speed Ball. - I started planning my company at the age of 17, founded it 4 years later at the age of 21. It aimed at raising large sums of money to help people living in deprived areas. I tried - I developed myself in all aspects, referencing from all the places I could reach, learning from everywhere (body language from Pease, systems from Nasa, etc. ) becoming one of my universitys recognized figures. - At 21, I was CO poisoned at 40. I died, I came back to life, my memory was completely erased and I was unable to create new memories, all from the 27th of December, 2013. - My neurologist, Dr. Adel Hassanein, believes Im a genius after a few weeks of treatment. - I fought my way through college, which was more than challenging, since, after the accident, I forgot the very basics of life, like the meanings of God, sex, (definitely) math, etc. I trained my brain, tried again with IGNITE (my company), for more than 100 challenging trials after the accident, and failed in all of them. - Many people lied to me, humorously hoping Id forget, did their best to halt me, and abused my condition. I included real names of many of these people, just as Ive included...
