There are also designs in bands or individual figures which have been conventionalized beyond present explanation. On this point it may be said that interpretations of designs secured from modern basket makers are apt to be delusive. The designs must be traced step by step from known designs or parts of designs by the method pursued by J. W. Fewkes on the Sikyatki pottery. 2 Doctor Fewkes used as a basis the designs on paraphernalia made by the fraternities for the various ceremonies current among the Hopi. Except a few interesting pieces of pottery from Oraibi, in which the ancient decorations had survived to some degree, the native ware collected in 1872 and succeeding years showed great deterioration. This is not true of basket designs, other textile designs, and designs used to decorate religious paraphernalia. The designs shown...
