The mysterious envelope arrives on Nick Cominskys desk amid a stack of credit card applications and business-related junk mail. Although his seventy-hour workweek has already eaten into his limited family time, Nick cant pass up the opportunity to see what kind of plot his colleagues have hatched. The normally confident, cynical Nick soon finds himself thrown off-balance, drawn into an intriguing conversation with a baffling man who comfortably discusses everything from world religions to the existence of heaven and hell. And this man who calls himself Jesus also seems to know a disturbing amount about Nicks personal life. . . . Youre bored, Nick. You were made for more than this. Youre worried about God stealing your fun, but youve got it backwards. Theres no adventure like being joined to the Creator of the universe. He leaned back off the table. And your first mission would be to let him guide you out of the mess youre in at work. . . . As the evening progresses, their conversation touches on life, God, meaning, pain, faith, and doubt and it seems that having Dinner with a Perfect Stranger may change Nicks life forever.
