But when tragedy strikes and her child is kidnapped, it causes a crisis in her faith. How could something so horrible happen? She wants to crawl inside herself and never come out, until she finds the source of her strength-her faith-and determines to get her daughter back. Alexandra Jones Miller finally has it all-the baby, the man, the life. But something always happens When Life Is Too Good. For Alex, life is too good to last very long. After adopting her baby girl and marrying Mr. Right, she is prepared to live the life she always dreamed was possible. But fate intervenes and snatches it away in an instant. Her precious baby Alexia has been kidnapped! After the heartache and disappointment Alex has suffered through the years, she doesn't know if she has enough left in her to handle this tragedy. She finds strength through her faith and determination, knowing she will get her daughter back. But whoever took her will have hell to pay. They will regret the day they ever met Alexandra Jones Miller.
