Excerpt: . . . 11 available. We must continue to make accurate information available, and we need to avoid confusing the women for whom this issue is so vitally important. I hope, as we all do, that we will soon arrive at answers to the many questions before us on this matter. In the end, the most important conclusion to reach will be one that offers more effective screening and treatment options for women. This week I was pleased to join Senator Dianne Feinstein, your-self Chairwoman Mikulski and many of our other colleagues in co-sponsoring The National Cancer Act of 2002. It is a modernization and enhancement of the original National Cancer Act of 1971, which was a result of President Richard Nixons war on cancer. This legislation would increase funding for the National Cancer Institute (NCI), provide incentives and increased compensation for re-searchers and physicians, and improve and expand the recruitment and training of health care workers who serve in underprivileged areas and areas with high rates of cancer. A major...
