

Instability in the Hindu Shastras: Ruptures in the Textual Integrity Within the Manuscripts. (Paperback)

By Open Windows A Feminist Resource Center

Lies and Big Feet., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It would be myopic if we refused to acknowledge that Max Mueller s (German philologist and Orientalist: 1823-1900) contribution to how the Hindu shastras were translated is essential to a nuanced understanding of how exactly were the editorial and textual processes involved in creating these texts. We can choose to disregard those parts of Muller s works that are a result of his personal biases which are symptomatic of Orientalist scholarship of the colonial period of the last two hundred years, but we cannot choose to undermine Mueller s mastery of Sanskrit. In The Complete Works of Swami Vivekananda (Vol. 5) Swami-ji himself compares Max Mueller s efforts as being akin to Sayana s commentaries. We are therefore - coerced to also accept Max Mueller s translations of the Hindu shastras and self-reflexive commentaries on how he collated the different manuscripts of the Hindu shastras that were available to him. From: Lectures on the Origin and Growth of Religion. As Illustrated by the Religions of India. Max Mueller (New York: Charles Scribner s Sons, 1879). At present, no doubt, there are MSS....
