

Three Generations of Resilient Women (Paperback)

By Josephine Ham Zemmer, Clover Ham Stevens

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In 1872, Malissa Hixson Gorrell left Ohio with her infant daughter to join Malissa s husband, Joseph Gorrell, on the homestead he had established on the Kansas frontier. After Joseph s death soon thereafter, Malissa remarries and discovers that Joe Hahn is a man always searching for riches, moving to the edge of the American frontier. Malissa lives a life of wandering with her second husband and her expanding family which eventually includes 6 sons and 7 daughters, with two dying as infants. Three Generations of Resilient Women tells the life stories of Malissa (1850-1927), her daughter-in-law Clover (1894-1990), and Clover s daughter Josephine (1914-). Clover and Josephine are the narrators of the saga. Common threads are woven across the three generations. All three women shared a strong love of family, courage in the face of tragedy, and the physical and emotional strength to cope with the difficult circumstances they encountered. They spent much of their lives traveling, looking for a safe place to prosper and raise their families. Much of their housekeeping was done while living in a tent or...

Reviews

The very best ebook i ever study. It really is rally fascinating through reading through period of time. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

This publication will never be effortless to get started on reading through but very entertaining to read through. It normally is not going to expense too much. I discovered this publication from my dad and i encouraged this book to find out.
