

Gardeners (Paperback)

By Véronique Bizot

Dialogos, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Even the safe harbor of an ordinary house garden is transformed into bewildering, uncharted territory in Véronique Bizot's critically acclaimed short story collection Gardeners. If the poet Mahmoud Darwish once observed that [t]here is nothing left of us in the wilderness save what the wilderness kept for itself, so too, in the apartments, backyards, and hotel lobbies that are the settings for Véronique Bizot's sober, fabulist tales, it is domestic life that constitutes the truly wild terrains, in which we may yet barely survive. A man returns home after decades abroad, only to find that a phalanx of gardeners have massacred the treasured chaos of the land he once knew. Three siblings repair to an abandoned country estate after gambling debts have left them in ruin, but the neighbors they encounter there prove more menacing than the urban cutthroats they left behind. A retired archeologist vacationing at a posh resort in Portugal is thrust back into troubled memories of her past life, by an invasion of possibly imaginary rats. These and three other stories comprise Bizot's subtle and strange, tender and...
