

Justice Penale, Le Tournant

By Danet, Jean

GALLIMARD, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: NEUF. Affaires d'Outreau, de Toulouse, ou encore des disparues de l'Yonne : comment la justice pénale qui fait l'objet de tant de réformes peut-elle connaître encore de tels sinistres ? Car depuis une décennie, cette institution subit une mutation qui va s'accroissant : des lois nouvelles la réforment, les apports de la Cour européenne des droits de l'homme la modifient, les pratiques de l'institution changent, comme ses rapports à la police, aux médias, aux collectivités territoriales. Mais dans ce tourbillon de la réforme permanente, nombre de questions n'ont pas reçu de véritables réponses - le rôle des procureurs, l'avenir des juges d'instruction, les profils des juges professionnels et non professionnels, les cartes judiciaires et le fonctionnement en réseau -, qui pèsent sur la capacité de la justice pénale à se transformer vraiment. La justice est-elle promise à devenir de plus en plus « sécuritaire », suivant ainsi l'air du temps ? Quelles sont ses capacités à satisfaire ou résister à cette perspective ? Bien au-delà des conjonctures politiques nationales et internationales et des formes actuelles de l'insécurité, ne rentre-t-elle pas de plain-pied dans la société du contrôle ? - Nombre de page(s) : 390 - Langue :...
