ACEE was vitally important, and while many technical reports have been written about its programs, it has received little historical analysis. While the program appears as a footnote or sidelight in several important historical works, it is rarely placed at the forefront and given exclusive attention. One exception was in 1998, when Virginia P. Dawson and Mark attention. D. Bowless article on the Advanced Turboprop Project in Pamela Macks 12 edited collection, From Engineering Science to Big Science. The collaboration and research for that article, Radical Innovation in a Conservative Environment, laid the groundwork for this current monograph. Some of the best monographs and technical reports for the Lewis ACEE projects include Roy Hager and Deborah Vrabel's Advanced Turboprop Project and Carl C. Ciepluch's published results of the Energy 13 Langley's ACEE projects have been the subjects Efficient...
