Private Security Management: Managing Accounts - Retaining Clients - Growing Businesses (Paperback)

By Roy S Wyatt

Outskirts Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .There are many books written informing how to manage. Everyone has their interpretation based on what has worked for them; but how is this actually done? Many books are written informing what needs done versus how to actually do it. It's easy to say you need to be creative in your scheduling when you don't have enough bench strength; or discipline someone when they break policy to correct performance. But do you know how to affectively discipline, and is it the right option; and what's being creative in scheduling? Creative to you could mean something totally different to me. You need solid examples and performance tools that work. These managers don't have time to figure out how to get it right. The time it takes trying to decipher this can often mean success or failure to the employees, company and themselves. Private Security Management is for the managers that MAKE IT HAPPEN. The ones on the front lines ensuring contract deliverables are carried out with the expected level of service. These managers have many titles from Operation Managers, Area/Field...
