Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Improvement Era, Vol. 38: November, 1935 I am grateful for my work and the countless young men and women, who, to me, have been m inspiration. I am thankful for the joy I have in the service I give; grate ul that my life has been one long vacation; grateful that the work I do for a livelihood has never been toil; that I have never watched the clock; that I have ever been more interested in success than wages. I am grateful that I would have done for nothing what I have been paid to do all my life, if I could have lived without it in modest comfort; I am grateful that if I could not lead, I have tried to follow. I am grateful, if on the morning. I can arise with the glory of a clear conscience; and that I try to make of every day an adventure; that I have a sense of humor; that I love laughter, children, and song; that I love the mountains, the sky, the clouds, the grass, and good books. I am grateful that I have tried to be tolerant and not arrogant; that I have loved the common man; that I have failed without cringing; that I have tried to earn my meal ticket on the square. I am thankful for pain and passions. For distress and disappointment, for appetites and imperfections. I am thankful for the associates with whom I work; for their interest in me, and that I have tried to be not envious of their success and that they are happy when I succeed. I am grateful that they understand me and are yet my...
