It tells the real-life story of a woman gets almost everything she ever wanted in life, and then loses it in an instant, including the man she loves. She tries to hold onto the seven-year relationship, even though she knows it will make the circumstances more difficult for both of them. But she does it anyway, and it saves her from being homeless. She chooses to stay under the same roof of the man she loves until she can be emotionally free and find another place to live. Her story is one of lessons learned, faith, and reality in a cruel world. Besides Me tells her past, present, and what the future may hold.
