Excerpt from Annals of the American Academy, Vol. 1: Volumes I-VI At a later meeting, held November 15, 1895, the sub-committee reported the following recommendations, which, after due consideration, were unanimously adopted That Dr. James resignation as Chairman of the Publication Committee and Editor of the annals be accepted, but that he be requested to continue as one of the Associate Editors; that Dr. Roland P. Falkner be chosen Chairman of the Publication Committee and Editor of the annals, to succeed Dr. James; and that Dr. Emory R. Johnson be selected to succeed Dr. James Harvey Robinson, whose resignation had also been received some time since. The foregoing announcement from the records of the Executive Committee of the Academy will explain the changes in the editorial management of the annals which take effect with the present number. Although compelled by change of residence to resign the managing editorship, Dr. James retains his full sympathy for the work and will continue as Associate Editor to take an advisory part in the policy of the annals, even though it may be...
