America Is Headed for a Fall. (Paperback)

By Ray Douglas

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Civilizations of the world are in a new phase of an ongoing cultural meltdown and America is leading the pack. A revolution typically begins with a relatively few people and grows as others identify with the ideals, moving toward certain ideals or goals. Like a cancer it spreads unless and until there is intervention. As an example, the cultural upheaval of the 1950s and 1960s beginning with Elvis cracking the walls of convention is addressed in this book. However this current phenomenon is very different because it has no direction, no identifiable goals. There is currently a free-wheeling-anything-goes mentality raging throughout a large segment of the population in America and the world seemingly based on nothing more than how disrespectful, how weird, how physically ugly, how vulgar, how offensive, how irresponsible and ignorant can each individual be, and how much can each get away with? It strives to obtain nothing positive. Coupled with this are generations of Americans who expect everything and contribute nothing. Throw drug and alcohol abuse into the mix and we have an attack from within that is shaking the...
