Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 170 x 107 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. All her life, Laura Sutherland has collected mirrors, gazing intently into the glass, searching for something she can't explain even to herself. Then she stumbles across the tarnished brass hand mirror at the Kilbourne estate sale, and she suddenly knows it's the one she's been looking for all these years. So when Peter Kilbourne mysteriously presses her to sell it back, she refuses without hesitation. Now Peter has been found stabbed to death, and Laura, the last person to see him alive, is the prime suspect. Up until then, the struggling artist has been far removed from the Kilbournes world of glamour. But determined to clear her name and uncover the truth about the mirror, Laura finds herself in the midst of the powerful family. And she soon realizes that each Kilbourne has something to hide, something that may prove their history of tragic misfortune is instead a legacy of deadly intent. Which one of them looks in the mirror and sees the reflection of a killer? Which one will choose Laura to be the next to die?.
