

Amyraut on Predestination: The First Published Translation from the French by Dr Matthew Harding (Paperback)

By Moïse Amyraut

Charenton Reformed Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Translated by Dr Matthew Harding, a biographical outline of Amyraut's life is provided by Dr Alan Clifford. From the Translator's Introduction The work which you hold in your hand is priceless. It is priceless not because it is intrinsically more valuable than any other great work of the seventeenth century or beyond, or because it is a free book to you the interested reader--you have paid an exact, fair price in acquiring this copy no doubt--but this text is priceless rather because not everybody gets a second chance to be heard in this lifetime. For most of us, God grants a short season in this life in which we find our usefulness for His kingdom and then, well, we expire; sadly, most of us will be unreservedly forgotten after we leave this earth. Our ideas, our works, our impact in our generation, and our voices are extinguished for the ages when we die. Forgotten, we are relegated to the annals of history, and then most of the world will never know we even existed. However, this is not always true! For...
