Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Personal Narrative of the Escape From Nowgong to Banda and Nagode I was urged yesterday by two of the most influential men of the corps, and as by the wish of the whole, to go over to Jhansi - 100 miles distant to speak to the men of the left wing in the fort. They evidently hoped that the men would be influenced by me. I spoke to the Major; but he was decidedly against it. I was not much in favour of it myself; I did not urge it but I would have gone and made the attempt, if ordered. I fear that all our native Prince Allies will turn upon us when they can do us most harm. It seems to me that the revolt is one to rid India of the British rule. Belief in some prophecy, and in some astrologer's announcement, tends to give firmness and consistency to the natives in this scheme. We have not seen the worst of it yet.
