Do You Know Where Your Parents Are An Insiders Guide To Choices and Options In Senior Health Care

By JoAnn Westbrook

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 312 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.8in. Finally a guide to senior healthcare that is readable, comprehensive, user-friendly, authoritative, and current. In its content, format, and timeliness, Do You Know Where Your Parents Are surpasses anything else on the market and fills a void. For the first time a true insider, a healthcare facility administrator, offers distressed families who have read the headlines about institutional abuse and neglect, the crucial information they need to choose the best health care option for a loved one. In clear, no-nonsense prose with the use of easy-to-use removable checklists, JoAnn Westbrook draws from ten years experience to take a family step by step through the maze of modern health care options from aging in place at home to dementia care facilities. With 77 million Baby Boomers who have aging parents and are on the way to retirement themselves, the time for this unique guide is now. To demonstrate how to interpret one of the most important tools for assessing a facility-the complicated state survey rating system. Ms. Westbrook has included a chapter on how to decipher a state survey. This has become especially relevant since for the first time,...
