Menefee returns with this stunning collection of imaginative short stories. Charlie O Doone Second Chance, a paranormal thriller. Charlie O Doone gets a second chance in life when he prays that he can live life over again knowing what he knows now, but when he discovers the Fountain of Youth, destiny exacts a terrible toll. The Last Train to Clarksville, a tragedy, takes two men on a journey beyond emotional barriers and into a realm where the circle of life closes with a heartrending eulogy for a singer who yodels no more. Election Day, a farce. On Election Day, hope that you do not stand in line with Gale Winds, a man who endures the outrageous misfortune of suffering a malady more mercurial than any long-winded filibuster. In the Middle of Nowhere, a horror story, follows Gwen Davies on her first assignment with her new job that begins with a startling sighting and ends with her discovering that there are more mysteries to life than there are answers . . . if she can survive to...
