Excerpt from The Good Old Days of Honorable John Company, Vol. 3: Being Curious Reminiscences Illustrating Manners and Customs of the British in India During the Rule of the East India Company From 1600 to 1858; With Brief Notices of Places and People of Those Times, C. C. C The first step taken was the formation of a settlement in Madagascar, to serve as a half-way house on the Indian voyage, but this was unsuccessful. Most of the settlers very soon perished, either from the deadly climate or the hostility of the natives; of the survivors, some repaired to the Isle of Bourbon, and others proceeded to India, where in the meantime the first French factory had been established at Surat in the year 1668. Masulipatam, on the opposite coast, was founded in the next year, and in 1672 St. Theme (near Madras) was captured from the Dutch, but was retaken two years after, when Pondicherry was founded in its stead. Chandernagore, in Bengal, was founded in 1688, up to which time the progress of the French had gone on unchecked. Pondicherry was...
