Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Elson Grammar School Reader, Vol. 1 Reading holds a commanding position in the school course. It lies at the foundation of all other studies and is fundamental to advancement in them. Whatever makes for good reading makes for progress in all other branches. Because of its importance, reading should have due recognition in the time-schedule of the school and should have fullest preparation at the hands of the teacher. A poor teacher of reading is a poor teacher, whatever else she may do well, while a good teacher of reading has gone a long way toward teaching efficiency. Reading therefore holds first place among elementary school studies. In the primary school, children learn to read, while in the grammar school they read to learn. In other words, the aim of the primary school is to give children power to read, while that of the grammar school is to use this power to further the ends of education, i. e., to interpret the printed page and gain knowledge from books, to acquire the reading habit, to find beauty and pleasure in the study of literature, and to acquire a discriminating taste. Grammar school reading therefore has a field and purpose of its own. The Elson Grammar School Readers have a definite purpose. They are not merely another set of readers. They aim to supply reading material of a character worthy the high place that reading holds in the school course, and to furnish it in abundance. In addition, this material is carefully selected, well graded, classified, and abundantly provided with Helps to aid pupils and teachers in interpreting the thought. The series consists of four books,...
