PHONECALL IN THE RAIN (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Combining personal experience and inspiration from the Bible, Phonecall In The Rain offers a series of reflections on various themes ranging from love, giving and forgiveness, to faith, courage and pride. Originally published as extended reflections on an electronic discussion group for Christians, the reflections are aimed at enabling Christians to build a meaningful relationship with God by understanding God s truth and power, and by seeing Jesus as an everlasting Redeemer. The author discusses - sometimes in a very outspoken way - issues and social problems of our time that have prevented God s children from achieving the great favours ordained for them. Irine Lum Asanji (aka LIA) is a freelance writer and journalist based in Brampton, Canada. Born in Cameroon to late Rev. Joseph Asanji and Phoebe Asanji, LIA immigrated to Canada in 2006. She holds an undergraduate degree in Journalism and an M.Phil in Anthropology. She worked as Journalist and Communication Officer with the Presbyterian Church in Cameroon. She is a born again Christian who has done ecumenical activities in Cameroon and internationally. In 2002, she obtained a scholarship from the Norwegian government. As part of her postgraduate research, she produced a documentary examining migration and national integration in Cameroon. In Canada, LIA has worked in PR, Human Resources and Client Care. On 11/11/2011 LIA launched Talktolia Marriage and Family Enrichment Services - her private business and Ministry. 2007, LIA became active member of the Cameroonian community in Toronto serving as ALCA Committee member and Assistant Secretary General for 3 years. On 10/8/12, LIA launched The Talktolia Show on YouTube. LIA is a member of the Writers and Editors Network (WEN), a columnist for DuniaMagazine and is among...
