Picador. Paperback. Condition: New. 288 pages. What is it like to be a brain surgeon How does it feel to hold someones life in your hands, to cut into the stuff that creates thought, feeling and reason How do you live with the consequences of performing a potentially life-saving operation when it all goes wrong In neurosurgery, more than in any other branch of medicine, the doctors oath to do no harm holds a bitter irony. Operations on the brain carry grave risks. Every day, Henry Marsh must make agonising decisions, often in the face of great urgency and uncertainty. If you believe that brain surgery is a precise and exquisite craft, practised by calm and detached surgeons, this gripping, brutally honest account will make you think again. With astonishing compassion and candour, one of the countrys leading neurosurgeons reveals the fierce joy of operating, the profoundly moving triumphs, the harrowing disasters, the haunting regrets and the moments of black humour that characterise a brain surgeons life. DO NO HARM is an unforgettable insight into the countless human dramas that take place in a busy modern hospital. Above all, it is a lesson in the need for hope when faced with lifes most difficult decisions. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
