Derek Madison is content being a bachelor until he meets Heather. They have a steamy, explosive relationship as they fall in love and marry. His idyllic life takes a chaotic turn when he begins to receive mysterious telephone calls. The message is always the same-go home. Derek ignores the calls, dismissing them as a prank. After a bitter disagreement with Heather, Derek leaves work early to apologize. He enters the house and discovers why the calls had been telling him to go home. Despite his discovery, Derek attempts to save his marriage. Devastated and hurt, he has difficulty loving and trusting Heather. He files for divorce and unexpectedly she receives full custody of their children. To make matters worse, she threatens his parental rights by not adhering to the divorce decree. Life after divorce causes Derek to struggle as he tries to balance being single and maintaining a relationship with his children. Broken-hearted, discouraged, lonely, and disillusioned he was about to give up when he meets Shaly. He wants to love and trust her, but questions whether he can. Will he allow...
