Reviews

It is great and fantastic. It can be written in easy phrases and never hard to understand. You will not really feel monotony at any time of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you request me).

Excerpt: .April 8, 1920, the director general estimated that this would add $50,000,000 per annum to the pay roll. Following the reconsideration of General Order No. 27 as applying to the ship crafts, the Eailroad Administration took up the reconsideration of the clerical forces in all departments, miscellaneous office employees, such as janitors; elevator and switchboard operators; office, station, and warehouse watchmen; stationary engineers; firemen and power house oilers; locomotive boiler washers; power and transfer turntable operators; and common labor employed about the shops, roundhouses, storehouses, and warehouses. As a result of this reconsideration Supplement No. 7, dated September 1, 1918, was issued, effective from that date. This supplement provided that eight hours should constitute a day s work for all the classes of employees covered thereby; it also provided that, excepting where there were existing agreements or practices more favorable to the employees, overtime would be computed for the ninth and tenth hours of continuous service pro rata on the actual minutes basis and thereafter at the rate of time and one-half time. It also left undisturbed the former bases of payment for Sunday and holiday service. For the clerical forces the supplement provided for the creation of a basic minimum rate of $62.50 per month as of January 1,1918, prior to the application of General Order No. 27, to which was added $25 per month, establishing a new minimum rate of $87.50 per month. For messengers, chore boys, and other employees under 18...
