

A Whiff of Cyanide (Paperback)

By Guy Fraser-Sampson

Urbane Publications, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The third volume of the bestselling Hampstead Murders sees the team become involved with a suspicious death at a crime writers convention. Is this the result of a bitterly contested election for the Chair of the Crime Writers Association or are even darker forces at work? Peter Collins, who is attending the convention as the author of a new book on poisoning in Golden Age fiction, worries that the key clue to unlock this puzzle may be buried within his own memories. A character called Miss Marple offers her advice, but how should the police receive this? Meanwhile an act of sudden, shocking violence and a dramatic revelation threaten tragic consequences.
