Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Dance of the Rain Synopsis Fiction novel based mainly within History of Cape Town s District Six. When Melissa September and Jamie-Lynne from impoverished District Six take up employment as housemaids for the influential McCurdy family in Cape Town, they do not expect the turbulent twists their young Coloured lives are about to take. During the height of the apartheid era in South Africa, Melissa falls in love with the family s son, Nicholas, and they soon engage in secret sexual encounters. Soon before long she falls pregnant but miscarries. Behind the facade of tremendous success the McCurdies are in dire financial distress. The solution to their problem is bullying Nicholas into marrying the barren daughter, Rene, of an affluent winemaker, named Cunningham. Despite a stern warning from Nicholas sister about how he impregnated a coloured girl previously and how her family forced an abortion upon the girl, Melissa engages in an affair with now-married Nicholas. Coupling with the start of forced evacuations, she gives birth to a daughter with blue eyes and blonde hair, a child sure to be taken away by the government, to possibly disappear into the system forever. In the interest of her child s future, Melissa gives up the four-month-old baby to Nicholas and Rene who is moving to London, a place he promised the two of them will one day move to. Dance of the Rain is more than just a love story. It is a life story. This manuscript is thoroughly researched and has a very personal, honest feel, with stories I got from several people who actually lived in the District. Some facts, not been broadly addressed before, are visited: The vicinity was grossly overpopulated....
