Uziel Productions Limited, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Charles an architect after enduring an accident in which he loses his wife and son, moves home. His new neighborhood is quaint and strange with lots of interesting characters. He attends a dinner party organised by Sally his neighbor where he meets them all including a Gothic spiritual healer called Agatha. He is still having nightmares about his family s accident. He undergoes seven sin trials which threaten lives of other family members in which many of his family members die over and over again with different events leading up to each death based on choices he and they make. Which makes him question, whether there really is such a thing as accidental death?.
