When life isn't going the way you want it to or when you're reeling from a heartbreaking loss, it's important to remember the good things in life. Even if you live on the street, you still have much to be grateful for: you're alive, and that's reason enough to be thankful. How to Attract the Power of God with Gratitude is a thoughtful meditation on the awesome power of two words: Thank you. Recognizing God's gifts isn't just important for maintaining a positive outlook-it can also help yield more gifts. If you smile at God, he'll smile back. In addition to bringing you closer to God, showing gratitude can influence your relationships with friends, family members, work colleagues, and others. Acknowledging the good deeds and positive influence of others deepens relationships, produces opportunities, and increases happiness. No one accomplishes anything alone. The benevolent hand of God influences all things in life-either directly or through friends and loved ones. As you'll learn in this book, taking a moment every day to thank God for his generosity can yield extraordinary results for your soul and your general well-being.
