Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sometimes things don t work out according to our plans, but we must know that God is in control of everything. We don t have to worry about who, what, where, why, or when. We just need to have faith in God. He is the great conductor that orchestrates our lives. If we follow his instructions and be sure to read our sheet music, we are destined to make beautiful music. Felecia Whitaker is a born again Christian and also head of the cheerleading squad. She is relentless in her pursuit of how she thinks that God is going to work things out. She has carefully mapped out her life down to the wire. She plans to graduate, marry a minister, and work in ministry with him. Her plans definitely didn t include the handsome Terrance Taylor. Terrance TNT Taylor is a college basketball star. He is popular in school and very popular with the ladies but he has his eye on the one girl that doesn t pay him any attention. He is never one to back...
