Miss!: Confessions of a West Country Teacher, Una Dowding, As head of a special education unit attached to Robinswood Junior School, Gloucester, Una Dowding faced many challenges. Where parents and other teachers had perhaps given up in despair, Una had to find a way of overcoming emotional, behavioural and learning difficulties to allow the children under her care to grow into useful and happy members of society. As a member of the Cotswold Writers' Circle, Una is an accomplished poet. A small selection of her poetry is included.
