Maney Publishing, United Kingdom, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Yen YUan [1635-1704] . . has an enduring place in the history of pre-modern Chinese thought. No one before him had so vigorously opposed the speculative Neo-Confucianism which dominated Chinese thought for several centuries, and no one had stressed practical experience so forcefully. These two aspects were well expressed in his Ts un-hsUeh pien (Preservation of Learning), although his criticism of the Neo-Confucian concepts of human nature was more systematically expressed in his Ts un-hsing pien (Preservation of Human Nature). The publication of an English translation, especially a good translation, of the Ts un-hsUeh pien will certainly contribute considerably to the scholarship of pre-modern Chinese thought. With the help by Professor Chi-chen Wang, Mr. Mansfield Freeman s translation is not only very accurate . but much more readable than the original text. Harry Hsin-i Hsiao in Journal of the American Oriental Society.
