Excerpt from Chinese Researches, Anecdotes and Reflections: Commercial and Political The Chinese affirm that eighteen centuries ago they had discovered the secret and means of manufacturing paper; before that invention, they used to inscribe written characters on thin strips of bamboo, or sheets of metal, using a style, or pen of iron for the purpose of marking the characters; and this, they assert, had been the practice of their nation from the most remote ages. Before the art of paper-making had arrived at perfection, the Chinese adopted the practice of writing upon white silk, or cotton, with a bamboo pen; this was found a more convenient method than writing either on strips of bamboo or sheets of metal, as the silk or linen could be folded into a small compass.
