It contains a welcome to President. H. Patterson, expressing a hope that Germany may greet him with the banner month in its business. Mr. Wark announces another term of the school and says that a number of gentlemen are ready for the study. The banner agents for une are: First prize, Mr. Villy Vigilan; second prize, Mr. Carl Becker. How one German merchant has been helped by a No. 79 Register is told as follows: Mr. Albert C.Walter, grocer, Hannover, who uses a No. 79 Register with the rebate system, pays his rebate three times in a year in April, uly and December. He keeps an accurate record in a separate cash book of these rebates, so that he can tell the exact amount of goods each customer purchases from him, also ascertain in what proportion the amount of rebate stands to the total amount of business. This Mr. Walter claims to be of great importance to him, inasmuch as he has a number of business people trading with him, such as shoemakers, tailors, bakers, etc., and in this way he and his family, make their purchases from these various business houses in proportion, so that the man who buys the largest amount from Mr. Walter will get the larger portion of his trade. This system proved to be of benefit to him in an instance where a shoemaker, who did all of Mr. alter s and his family s work, had only...
