THE MAN WHO KILLED MY SOUL ON A THURSDAY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The action of the novel The Man Who Killed My Soul on a Thursday starts at Hercules s Spa in the pool of the Roman Hotel, where the janitor found in the morning a dead young woman. That evening, the senator Sava Sandorian was there with his camarilla. One question s in the air: is the dead girl in the pool part of the official s entourage? The senator separated from Saviana - the teacher who read everything that came her way, because she got pregnant, and he didn t want the baby. A post-revolutionary world, rich overnight. Money - power - motley characters, inhabit a swampy, smelly, unstable world. Gays - lesbians - stylists - monicas prepared to satisfy any men who own luxury limousines. Anatolia, a teenager, aroused the interest of several rich and famous ladies. I talk to my fate fairies every day, Anarotha said, to change my sex, to become a one-eyed male fairy, Argentina didn t join the game of blind passion she triggered in her female mates, Amedea. left behind the age when she needed to accept money from men and women as well, Arthemisa. preferred an alliance with a man, Aristi?a wanted something hot and passionate, as she was bored between the two monthly paydays. Caricatured characters, only made of lines. They lack heart, color, essence. It s the sketch of a superficial world, devoid of depth. It s like a lake surface, the depth being hidden somewhere down. Sava Sandorian s life is like a leaking faucet, through which monicas flow incessantly. The monicas pool is flawless too. They flow in a mono-tonous, boring, banal rhythm. They are all pretty-eyed, beautiful, siliconed. This monotony...
