THE END OF WHITENESS: SATANISM AND FAMILY MURDER IN LATE APARTHEID SOUTH AFRICA

Jacana Media. Paperback. Condition: New. 240 pages. The aim of the book is to reveal the pathological, paranoid and bizarre consequences that the looming end of apartheid had on white culture in South Africa, and overall to show that whiteness (in SA and in general) is a deeply problematic category that needs to be deconstructed and thoughtfully considered. It discusses two symptoms of this late apartheid cultural hysteria that appeared throughout the contemporary media and in popular literature during the...
