C. , single parent of a lovely daughter and an entrepreneur by blood, has owned three businesses and was recognized by the Anacostia Museum as the Youngest Business Owner East of the River, Southeast. Founder of The Young Esther Foundation, an exciting new venture that was birthed along with this book, JP desires to help teenage girls transform their lifestyles into shining examples, like Esther was for the Jews. This book is an instructional manual on how to fulfill Gods purpose. It teaches how the power of God can be revealed through fasting, praying, praise, and studying the word of God. This type of commitment will allow us to hear Gods voice as he issues kingdom building assignments. Through JPs life story,...
