

The Losses: A Novel

By Cully Perlman

MidTown Publishing Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 304 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Julianne Lipscomb is thrilled to have her family visit for their annual gathering in the small town of Helen, Georgia. While sibling rivalries arise, it is Harvey, Juliannes husband, who is the center of attention. Harvey is fading away with age, but in the tempest that is their gathering, it is Harvey and his secret past that upset the gathering at the Lipscomb home. One morning, lost in thought, Harvey admits that he has lost a son years earlier. Harveys confession is the beginning of many startling confessions. Harvey has other families, other demons. But in the chaos of Juliannes daughters marital difficulties, Harveys problems are temporarily pushed to the side. Problems never settled come back to haunt, and for the Lipscomb family, the youngest family members are the ones to suffer the greatest later on. Aaron, years older now and wandering from city to city, isnt sure if his grandfather ever did anything inappropriate, but hes positive Graham Oggy, his fathers boss, has. While Aaron has learned to deal with his being a victim, he struggles to not become the victimizer. He has good people around...
