Sence of Dr. Mathews. We will, to do justice to him, state the expla nation which he then gave of his agency in the. Transaction to which it has reference, with all the strength, too, which he subsequently attempted to give to it before the committee of the Council. He said that he did not appoint the young men to prepare the Speeches that have been mentioned, and did not, therefore, assign; to them of his own motion the honours of the institution; that he only told A, ou are a good Latin scholar, and if we shall have a public commencement, you will very probably speak the Latin Salutatory, and to B, that he would very probably have the Valedictory assigned to him, and to the candidates generally, that there was no harm in their getting ready for a com. Mencement if there should be one; and...
