The automobile and tire business is weak in the knees at present. But it will recover. Autos are still in daily use and the middle of any street is as unsafe a gossiping place as it was six months ago. We will continue to drive cars of high and low degree and remember, and remember, that every time the wheels revolve the automobile and its tires are that much nearer the junk heap. Road-building projects on a large scale are being planned all over the country and will be put through. Dentistry has always been the last to get bad and the first to get good and it s better today and with greater possibilities than ever before. LET S ALL, BOOST TOGETHER!
