

The Undergraduate Years (2011-2012) (Paperback)

By Kyle R Brady

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Undergraduate Years (2011-2012) is Volume I of Kyle R. Brady: The Collected Works, a collection of the author s academic works, divided into specific and tangible periods, meant for both the curious reader and posterity itself. Each individual piece serves as a short-but-detailed introduction to the subject under consideration, in a way that s aiming for both understanding and relevance. Moreover, each piece serves as a brief window to the author s worldview at the time and his evolving interests, creating an important record in understanding his academic and professional development. Volume I -- while not particularly revolutionary, groundbreaking, or deep -- contains top-notch academic work for a student who was, at the time, an A-level political science undergraduate trying to understand the world through the lenses of political theory, political philosophy, international relations, and realism. Subjects include Aristophanes, Thucydides, The Republic of Turkey, Sigmund Freud, Herbert Marcuse, Aristotle, Mencius, David Bohm, John Dewey, Jurgen Habermas, Michael Walzer, the City of San Jose, Thomas Hobbes, Jean-Jacques Rousseau, Realism, and The Russian Federation. Chapters: 1 - Public Opinion and...
