Forgotten Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Synoptic List of the Fishes Known to Occur Within Fifty Miles of Chicago Owing to the many changes being made in this region on account Of the growth of the city, the local fish fauna and its consequent changes are interesting. The present paper is intended to afford students of the local fish-fauna, in and about Chicago, a ready means for the identification of fishes which they may collect, and thus assist in the study of their distribution, breeding and feeding habits, etc. A considerable amount of study along these lines is necessary before one is able to prepare a complete account of the fishes Of this region. In the following pages is given a list, together with keys and brief descriptions, of the fishes which inhabit the lakes, streams, and la goons in and near Chicago. The general range of each species is: given, and a list of localities where each has been taken in the area in question. Many of the descriptions have been drawn directly from specimens taken within the area under discussion, and all have been verified by the junior author with local material, so far as available. In the preparation of this paper free use has been made of previous publications by various authors. Considerable assistance has been received from Dr. Shelford, Dr. Riddle, and their students from the University of Chicago, also from Mr. A. P. Ford (formerly of Berwyn, Illinois), chemist for the Crane Iron Works, Bridgeport, Conn. Most of the illustrations used in this work are by permission of its authors, taken from The Fishes of Illinois, by S. A. Forbes and R. E. Richardson; some are made from photographs...
