THE EVOLUTION OF THE BOSTON MEDAL: A MONOGRAPH (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Evolution of the Boston Medal: A Monograph The Continental Congress, by vote passed on the 25th of March, 1776, decreed a gold medal to General Washington to commemorate his wise and spirited conduct in the seige and acquisition of Boston. For various reasons, not the least of which was the lack of money, nothing was done for several years towards carrying this vote into execution and the matter seemed to have been forgotten, except by Washington, who, though he said nothing, in his heart felt much mortified by the neglect. As he wrote to Col. Humphreys, his friend and aide-de-camp, My Dear Humphreys, I thank you for your attention to the medal which was voted for me; by Congress. I expected it was to have remained on the journals of that honorable Body as a dead letter, and never having hinted, - so I never intended to hint, my knowledge of such a vote, or my apprehension of the effect of it, to any one in power or in office. G. Washington. Mount Vernon, 1st September, 1785. This is the only reference to the medal to be found in any of Washington s writings, and it is interesting as a proof that at that date he had not forgotten it and that he did attach a certain importance to the honor it implied, however little he seemed to regard it subsequently.
